TOBACCO MARKET.

Small Sales Yesterday-Little Business Expected This Week. Business Expected This Week.

The tobacco market yesterday resumed business after the two weeks suspension for the Christmas and New Year holiday, but it was merely a nominal resumption, there being practically nothing done. There were sales at only two of the houses and the total offerings did not exceed twolve or fifteen thousand pounds. Indeed, it was hardly expected that much would be done this week, and now that the weather has changed to harsh and blizzardy, it is assured that unless something in the way of a decided change appears there will be few going to market.

The majority of those who desired ready appears there will be few going to market.

The majority of those who desired ready money and sold part of their crops early to get same, marketed their loads before the holidays. Now the remainder will be held until a more seasonable operunity, and it is expected that when the leaf again begins to arrive in quantity that the stocks on hand will have been sufficiently depleted to create a more active demand than that existing just before the holidays.

There is a heavy price on Harris's head, and he has been outlawed by the county authorities. He was convicted al-year ago of arson and sentenced to thirty years in the State prison. He escaped and was recaptured, only to escaped and was recaptured, only to escaped and was recaptured, only to escape a second time, since which he has defined the unintons of the law. He is a desperate negro, and is charged with every crime in the calendar. Sheriff Wallace left to-night for Salisbury to identify Harris and bring him to Charlotte.

LITTLE DETECTIVES WITH

"EYES OF ARGUS"

It has been said that "a Tee-Dee Want has a thousand eyes."

Sherlock Holmes had but two, although they were uncommonly good ones.

However, Holmes could not have found for you, over night, the one man in the city who most wanted to buy your house, or your store, or your horse, or your library, or your securities, or your automobile, or your old desk, or your piano; or the one man in the city who would be the best partner for you, or the best clerk, or coachman, or handy-man; or the one woman in the city who would be the most yaluable stenographer for you, or cook, or housekeeper.

But the little thousand-eyed Tee-Dee Want finds these people for you—and finds them quickly, presenting no bill for "extras" as "disbursements," as Sherlock Holmes would have been apt to do.

When You Want Anything, Is it Not Better to Set a Thousand Eyes Looking for It Than ONLY TWO?
